Regular meetings/feedback sessions

16. Each quarter, Electrical and Computer Engineering recognizes students who excel in their teaching services and provide a valuable contribution to teaching in Electrical and Computer Engineering by conferring the "Teaching Excellence Awards". Would you recommend this Instructional Assistant for the Electrical and Computer Engineering Teaching Excellence Award? If yes, please explain why they deserve the award.

- I highly recommend Jean because, he has been an instrumental part of making sure the class runs as smooth as possible. He plays a vocal role during the weekly meetings to make sure all tasks that need to be addressed are discussed so that the tutors are ready for what's coming up in the week. This includes holding a lab prep session for tutors to make sure they understand the lab ahead of time. He also actively communicates with me outside of the meeting time, either in person at my office or online, to discuss plans for the class. This includes one time he ensured that the test source method was taught in the class as otherwise, the students would be stuck on the HW. He also provides great feedback on the quiz to catch any typos or mistakes as well as to keep them within a reasonable difficulty for the students.

17. Do you have any other comments to add to your evaluation?

Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- Jean has also taken charge in communicating with the students through announcements, whether it be lab reminders, quiz seating assignments, change in office hours, etc. He also taken charge of assigning seats for the students during quizzes which involves splitting them up into two rooms and organizing them correctly. Jean also attends lecture very regularly even when he is not required to as to make sure he is updated on what the student has learned as well as the style that I have taught them. This is important to make sure his Friday discussion sections are up to date and so that he teaches them in a way that doesn't deviate from my teaching style. Many students attend these sessions as well as his office hours as they deem him knowledgeable and good at explaining various concepts.
