1. Please describe this person's greatest strengths as a Instructional Assistant.
Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- An amazing tutor, very nice and helpful and patient. Understands the materials very well.
- Great instruction and helpful during labs
- Helped me out a lot by giving example and what he went through as a student back in the when he took the class in order to give us some insight. Helped me in lab class
- his good
- Jean is a personable IA and is able to quickly and clearly support my concerns outside of class.
- Jean is easy to approach and is the first person I would reach out to for anything. He also teaches us how to observe the whole system and how circuit components interact with each other.
- knowledgeable, goes around very often and helps people. fed me chicken when I was hungi
- Patient, clear, and well-directed advice.
- Really good at explaining problems by writing out and showing each steps.
- Super active in Piazza (answers many questions)
- Super friendly and funny
- They are always happy to help, and they love teaching students new ways to approach problems.
- This IA is very friendly and contributes positively to the environment in lab and class. He is highly knowledgeable on the subject matter and is helpful when students need help.
- Very active on discussion boards; likely has the highest instructor response rate on Piazza.
- Very clear and very helpful with giving any guidance or assistants.

- Very helpful during labs, nice person as well
- Very knowledgeable and informative about course concepts. Discusses and explains topics in a clear manner that is understandable that helps build up your conceptual knowledge about the topic. Generally well-prepared during office hours and very helpful outside of office hours(piazza).
- Very patient and answered questions thoroughly. Whenever he would help students in the lab, he would articulate the content effectively and made it simple to understand. He guided students along in the right direction and facilitated a great learning environment.

2. Please describe this person's greatest weaknesses as a Instructional Assistant.
Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- his good
- There is not a weakness that comes to mind.

3. Please detail other characteristics of the Instructional Assistant (if applicable).
Please keep your comments constructive and professional, abiding by the Principles of Community

- During labs, when my partner and I ask any questions. Gorby does a good job of not fully answering the question but, giving any suggestions or advice on how we can answer the question ourselves.
- Friendly and talkative. Went out of his way to provide assistance.
- Has a solid understanding of the content and communicates well.
- He creates easy-going lab sessions.
- Very well informed, a great teacher, and one of the best instructional assistants in the class.

4. I would recommend this Instructional Assistant to other students.
